Any consent to subletting may be subject to such conditions as the Board may impose. No consent to a subletting shall operate to release the Resident from any obligation under this Agreement, and no consent to a sublease shall operate as a consent to an extension of the sublease or to a future sublease. No sublease shall be permitted for a term in excess of one (1) year. All proposed subtenants shall be approved in writing by the Board, subject to the provisions that all sums due from the Resident shall have been paid to the Association, together with a sum fixed by the Board to cover a screening fee of the Association and its management in connection with review and approval of the sublease, providing same does not exceed the maximum amount allowed by law. All approved subtenants shall sign the certificate of approval wherein they acknowledge that they have read the Master Occupancy Agreement and the Rules and Regulations of the Association and agree to abide by same.

B. Assignment - The Resident shall not assign this Agreement or transfer the appurtenant membership certificate or any interest in the Agreement or certificate, and no such assignment or transfer shall take effect as against the Association for any purpose, until:

(i) An instrument of assignment in form approved by the Association executed and acknowledged by the Member/Resident (assignor) shall be delivered to the Association; and

(iv) Subject to the provisions of paragraph B, all sums due from the Resident shall have been paid to the Association, together with a sum fixed by the Board to cover a screening fee of the Association and its management in connection with such assignment and cancellation and re-issue of membership certificate, providing same does not exceed the maximum amount allowed by law, and;

(v) Except in the case of an assignment, transfer or bequest of the this Agreement to the Resident's spouse or adult siblings or parents, and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, consent to such assignment shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board, or given in writing by a majority of the Directors of the Board.

C. Right of First Refusal - In the event the Board disapproves the proposed assignment or subletting, as the case may be, and if a Member still desires to consummate such subletting or assignment, the Member shall, thirty (30) days before such subletting or assignment give written notice to the Secretary of the Association of the Member's intention to assign or sublet on a certain date, together with the price and other terms of the assignment or subletting, and the Association shall promptly notify the Members of the Association of the date, price and terms.

Completely apart from and in addition to the Boards' right to approve or disapprove any proposed sublease or assignment of the sublease, the Association is hereby given a right of first refusal to sublet or assign, as the case may be, each Agreement and to cancel and re-issue the membership certificate which is appurtenant to the Agreement. If the Association desires to exercise its right of first refusal to sublet or assign the Agreement and cancel and re-issue its membership certificate on the same terms and conditions as are contained in a bona fide written offer, then the Association shall notify the Member holding the Agreement of the exercise by the Association of its election to take an assignment or sublet as the case may be, such notice to be in writing and sent by certified mail to the Member within fifteen (15) days of receipt by the Association of the Member's notice to the secretary of the Association of the Member's intention to assign or sublet.

If the Association has elected to take an assignment or sublet as described above, then, upon notifying the Member holding such Agreement and membership certificate of its election the Association shall execute a sublease or assignment together with the membership certificate appurtenant to the Agreement, and shall consummate said sublease or assignment on all the terms and conditions as those contained in the offer. In the event the Board does not exercise its right of first refusal within the fifteen (15) day period, then the Member desiring to sublet or assign may complete the sublease, together with the title to his or her mobile home, and have the Association cancel his membership certificate on the records of the Association and issue a new membership certificate to the assignee within a reasonable time at the price and terms given in his notice, but at no other price or terms without repeating the procedure outlined above.

In the event the Member sublets and assigns without first complying with the terms of the Agreement, the Association shall have the right to redeem the assignment or sublease from the purchaser, according to the provisions of this Agreement. The Association's rights shall be exercised by reimbursing the purchaser for the monies expended, and immediately after such reimbursement the purchaser or transferee shall convey his right, title and interest in and to the sublease or assignment of Agreement and membership certificate, as the case may be, to the Association. An affidavit of the Secretary stating that the Board approved in all respects on a certain date the sublease or assignment shall be conclusive evidence of such fact, and from the date of approval, as stated in the affidavit, the Association redemption rights shall terminate. An affidavit of the Secretary of the Association stating that the Board was given proper notice on a certain date of the proposed sublease or assignment and that after notice all provisions of this Agreement that constitute conditions precedent to the subsequent sublease or assignment have been complied with, and that the sublease or assignment of a unit to particularly named persons does not violate the provisions of this Agreement, shall be conclusive evidence of such facts. Such affidavit shall not be evidence of the fact that the subsequent sublease or assignment to such persons was made on the approved terms and within reasonable time of approval, but one hundred twenty (120) days after the date of the notice to the Board as stated in the affidavit the redemption rights provided the Association by this Agreement shall terminate.

D. Death of Resident - Agreements may be held jointly with right of survivorship. However, in the case of the death of a Member holding sole ownership of an Agreement, the surviving spouse, if any, and if no surviving spouse, the other Member or members of such owner's family residing with the owner at the time of his death, may continue to occupy the Unit; and if such surviving spouse or other surviving members of the decedent owner's family shall have succeeded to the ownership of the Unit, by gift, bequest or otherwise, the ownership of the Unit shall be transferred by legal process to the new owner. In the event the decedent shall have conveyed or bequeathed the ownership of his Unit to some designated person or persons other than a surviving spouse or members of his family, or if some other person is designated by the decedent's legal representative to receive the ownership of the Unit, or if under the laws of descent and distribution in the State of Florida the unit descends to some person or persons other than a surviving spouse or family member, the Board within thirty (30) days from the date the Association is given actual notice in writing of the name of the devisee or descendant, may express its refusal or acceptance of the individual or individuals so designated as owner of the Unit. If the Board consent, ownership of the Unit may be transferred by proper assignment of the Agreement and cancellation of the membership certificate and re-issue of a membership certificate by the Association to the person or persons so designated, who shall thereupon become Members of the Association subject to the provisions of this Agreement and the Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation. If the Board shall refuse to consent, then the Association shall be given an additional thirty (30) days to exercise its right of first refusal to have the Agreement transferred and have the membership certificate cancelled and a new membership certificate issued to it for its own account upon the same terms and conditions of first refusal as provided for in subparagraph C above. The purchase price shall be for cash and if the Association and the personal representative are unable to agree upon a purchase price within fifteen (15) days from exercise of the Association's election to purchase then the purchase price shall be determined by an appraiser appointed by the Association and the personal representative. The expense of appraisal shall be paid equally by the Association and the personal representative. In the event the Association does not exercise its right of first refusal to purchase then the person or persons named in the notice may take title to the Unit by a proper assignment of the decedent's Agreement and its appurtenant membership certificate; but such transfer shall be subject in all other respects to the provisions of this Agreement and the Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation.

E. Leases, subleases and assignments to assignees other than individual assignees (natural persons) are expressly prohibited, unless written consent is first obtained from the Board. The Board's consent to such assignment or sublease may be reasonably withheld.

F. If the sublessee or assignee of an Agreement and cancellation and re-issue of a membership certificate thereto is a corporation, the Board's approval may be conditioned upon approval of the corporation's occupants of the Unit.

ARTICLE TWENTY-THREE WAIVERS

The failure of the Association on any one occasion or several, to insist upon a strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement, or to exercise any right or option provided by this Agreement, or to serve any notice, or to institute any action or proceeding, shall not be construed as a waiver, or a relinquishment for the future, of any such provisions, options or rights, but such provisions, options or rights shall continue and remain in full force and effect. The receipt by the Association of Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments with knowledge of the breach of any covenant of this Agreement, shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach, and no waiver by the Association of any Agreement provision shall be deemed to have been made unless in a writing expressly approved by the Board.

ARTICLE TWENTY-FOUR NOTICES

Any notice by or demand from either party to the other shall be duly given only if in writing and sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested: if by the Resident, addressed to the Association at the park with a copy sent by regular mail to the Association's managing agent or secretary if there is no managing agent; if to the Resident, addressed to the Unit. Either party may by notice served as provided by this Agreement designate a different address for service of such notice or demand. Notices or demands shall be deemed given on the date when mailed, except notices of change of address shall be deemed served when received.

ARTICLE TWENTY-FIVE
REIMBURSEMENT OF ASSOCIATION'S EXPENSES

If at any time the Resident shall be in default of this Agreement and the Association shall incur any expense (whether paid or not) in performing acts that the Resident is required to perform, or in instituting any action or proceeding based on such default, or defending, or asserting a counterclaim in, any action or proceeding brought by the Resident, the expense to the Association of taking such action including reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements, appellate fees and costs, if any, shall be paid by the Resident to the Association, on demand, as additional Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments.

ARTICLE TWENTY-SIX ASSOCIATION'S IMMUNITIES

A. The Association shall not be liable, except by reason of Association's negligence, for any failure or insufficiency of water supply, electric current, gas, telephone, or other services to be supplied by the Association or for interference with light, air, view or other interests of the Resident. No abatement of Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses, Assessments or other compensation or claim of eviction shall be made or allowed because of the making or failing to make or delay in making any repairs or alterations to the common facilities, or any fixtures or appurtenances therein; or for the taking to comply with any law, ordinance or governmental regulation; or for interrupting or curtailing any service agreed to be furnished by the Association, due to accidents, alterations or repairs; or to difficulty or delay in securing supplies or labor or other cause beyond Association's control, unless due to Association's negligence.

B. Automobiles and Other Property - The Association shall not be responsible for any damage to any automobile or other vehicle left in the care of any employee of the Association by the Resident, and the Resident hereby agrees to hold the Association harmless from any liability arising from any injury to person or property caused by or with such automobile or other vehicle while in the care of such employee. The Association shall not be responsible for any property left with or entrusted to any employee of the Association, or for the loss of or damage to any property within or without the Unit by theft or otherwise.

ARTICLE TWENTY-SEVEN
TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT BY ASSOCIATION

If upon, or at any time after, the happening of any of the events mentioned in subdivisions A through J inclusive of this Article 27, the Association shall give to the Resident a notice stating that the term of the Agreement will expire on a date at least five (5) days after the giving of the notice. The term of this Agreement shall expire on the date so fixed in such notice as fully and completely as if it were the date definitely fixed in this Agreement for the expiration of the term, and all right, title and interest of the Resident under this Agreement shall upon the expiration of the notice period wholly cease and expire, and the Resident shall quit and surrender the Unit to the Association, it being the intention of the parties by this provision to create a conditional limitation, and thereupon the Association shall have the right to re-enter the Unit and to remove all persons and personal property from the Unit, either by summary dispossess proceedings, or by any suitable action or proceeding at law or in equity, and to repossess the Unit in its former estate as if this Agreement had not been made, and no liability whatsoever shall attach to the Association by reason of the exercise of the right of re-entry, repossession and removal granted and reserved by this provision:

A. If the Resident shall cease to be the owner of the membership certificate to which this Agreement is appurtenant, or if this Agreement shall pass or be assigned to anyone who is not then the owner of the membership certificate;

B. If at any time during the term of this Agreement (i) then the holder hereof shall be adjudicated as bankrupt under the laws of the United States; or (ii) a receiver of all of the property of such holder of this Agreement shall be appointed under any provisions of the laws of the State of Florida, or under any statute of the United States, or any statute of any state of the United States and the order appointing such receiver shall not be vacated within thirty (30) days; or (iii) such holder shall make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or (iv) the membership certificate owned by such holder to which this Agreement is appurtenant shall be duly levied upon under the process of any court whatever unless such levy shall be discharged within thirty (30) days; or (v) this agreement or the membership certificate to which it is appurtenant shall pass by operation of law or otherwise to anyone other than the Resident named in this Agreement or a person to whom such Resident has assigned this Agreement in the manner permitted by this Agreement but this subsection (v) shall not be applicable if this Agreement shall devolve upon the executors or administrators of the Resident and provided that within eight (8) months (which period may be extended by the Board) after the death said Agreement and membership certificate shall have been transferred to any assignee in accordance with paragraph 17 hereof; or (vi) this Agreement or the membership certificate to which it is appurtenant shall pass to anyone other than the named Resident by reason of a default by the Resident under a pledge or security agreement or a leasehold mortgage made by the Resident;

C. If there is an assignment or subletting of this Agreement without full compliance with the requirements of paragraph 17 hereof; or if any person not authorized by paragraph 4 or shall be permitted to use or occupy the Unit, and the Resident shall fail to cause such unauthorized person to vacate the Unit within ten days after written notice from the Association;

D. If the Resident shall be in default for a period of one month in the payment of any Maintenance Fees, Common Expense or Assessment or of any installment and shall fail to cure such default within ten (10) days after written notice from the Association;

E. If the Resident shall be in default in the performance of any covenant or provision of this Agreement, other than the covenant to pay Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments, and such default shall continue for thirty (30) days after written notice from the Association; provided, however, that if said default consists of the failure to perform any act the performance of which requires any substantial period of time, then if within the 30-day period such performance is commenced and diligently prosecuted to conclusion without delay and interruption, the Resident shall be deemed to have cured the default;

F. If at any time the Association shall determine, upon the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent of its then Board, at a meeting duly called for that purpose, that because of objectionable conduct on the part of the Resident, or of a person dwelling or visiting in the Unit, repeated after written notice from Association, the tenancy of the Resident is undesirable; (it being understood, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, that repeatedly to violate or disregard the Rules and Regulations attached to the Bylaws or established in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or the Bylaws or to permit or tolerate a person of dissolute, loose or immoral character to enter or remain in the unit, shall be deemed to be objectionable conduct);

G. If at any time the Association shall determine, upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of its then Board at a meeting of such Board duly called for that purpose, and the affirmative vote of the record holders of at least 90% of its then issued membership certificates, at a meeting duly called for that purpose, to terminate all Agreements;

H. If the common facilities shall be destroyed or damaged and seventy-five percent of the Members shall decide not to repair or rebuild;

I. If at any time the common facilities or a substantial portion thereof shall be taken by condemnation proceedings;

J. If Resident shall default in the payment or performance of any of Resident's obligations under any pledge or leasehold mortgage or other security agreement (the "security agreement") given a secured party (who has complied with the provisions of paragraph 20 B), and written notice of such default is given to the Association by the secured party or its counsel.

ARTICLE TWENTY-EIGHT
ASSOCIATION'S RIGHTS AFTER RESIDENT'S DEFAULT

A. In the event the Association resumes possession of the unit, either by summary proceedings, action of ejectment or otherwise, because of default by the Resident in the payment of any Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments due under these provisions, or on the expiration of the term pursuant to a notice given as provided in paragraph 27 upon the happening of any event specified in subsections A to F inclusive or J of Article 27, Resident shall continue to remain liable for payment of a sum equal to the sums which would have become due under this Agreement and shall pay such sums in installments at the time they would be due under this Agreement. No suit brought to recover any installment of Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments shall prejudice the right of the Association to recover any subsequent installment. After resuming possession, the Association may, at its option, from time to time (i) relet the Unit for its own account, or (ii) relet the Unit as the agent of the Resident, the name of the Resident or in its own name, for a term which may be less than or greater than the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the term of this Agreement, and may grant concessions in its discretion. Any reletting of the Unit shall be deemed for the account of the Resident, unless within ten (10) days after such reletting the Association shall notify the Resident that the premises have been relet for the Association's own account. The fact that the Association may have relet the Unit as agent for the Resident shall not prevent the Association from later notifying the Resident that it proposes to relet the Unit for its own account. If the Association relets the Unit as agent for the Resident, it shall, after reimbursing itself for its expenses in connection with renting the Unit, including leasing commissions and a reasonable amount for attorney's fees and expenses, and repairs in and to the Unit, apply the remaining monies of such reletting against the Resident's continuing obligations under this Agreement. There shall be a final accounting between the Association and the Resident upon the earliest of the four following dates: (i) the date of expiration of the term of this Agreement as stated on Page 1 (ii) the date as of which a new Agreement covering the Unit shall have become effective; (iii) the date the Association gives written notice to the Resident that it has relet the Unit for its own account; (iv) the date upon which all Agreements of the Association terminate. From and after the date upon which the Association becomes obligated to account to the Resident, as provided above, the Association shall have no further duty to account to the Resident for any monies for reletting and the Resident shall have no further liability for sums thereafter accruing under the Agreement, but such termination of the Resident's liability shall not affect any liabilities previously accrued.

B. If the Resident shall at any time sublet the Unit and shall default in the payment of any sum due under this Agreement, the Association may, at its option, so long as such default shall continue, demand and receive from the subtenant the sums due or becoming due from such subtenant to the Resident, and apply the amount to pay sums due or becoming due from the Resident to the Association. Any payment by a subtenant to the Association shall constitute a discharge of the obligation of such subtenant to the Resident, to the extent of the amount so paid. The acceptance of rent from any subtenant to the Resident shall not be deemed a consent to or approval of any subletting or assignment by the Resident or a release or discharge of any of the obligations of the Resident under this Agreement.

C. Upon the termination of this Agreement under the provisions of subdivisions A to F inclusive or J of Article 27, the Resident shall surrender to the Association the membership certificate of the Association owned by the Resident to which this Agreement is appurtenant. Whether or not the certificate is surrendered, the Association may issue a new Agreement for the unit and issue a new certificate for the membership certificate of the Association owned by the Resident and allocated to the Unit when a purchaser of the Unit is obtained, provided that the issuance of such membership certificate and Agreement to the purchaser is authorized by a resolution of the Board, or by a writing signed by a majority of the membership certificate holders of the Association accompanying Agreements then in force. Upon such issuance the certificate owned or held by the Resident shall be automatically cancelled and rendered null and void. The Association shall apply the proceeds received for the issuance of such membership certificate first, towards the payment of Resident's indebtedness under this Agreement (including interest, attorney's fees (and appellate fees and costs, if any), and other expenses incurred by the Association; second, if the termination shall result pursuant to subdivision J of Article 27 by reason of a default under the security agreement towards the payment of Resident's indebtedness under the security agreement (including all costs, expenses and charges payable by Resident thereunder); and third, if the proceeds are sufficient to pay the same, the Association shall pay over any surplus to the Resident, but, if insufficient, the Resident shall remain liable for the balance of the indebtedness due under this Agreement or (if applicable) under said security agreement. Upon issuance of any such new Agreement and certificate, the Resident's liability under this Agreement shall cease and the Resident shall be liable for Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses and Assessments accrued to that time. The Association shall not, however, be obligated to sell such membership certificate and appurtenant Agreement or otherwise make any attempt to mitigate damages.

ARTICLE TWENTY-NINE WAIVER OF RIGHT OF REDEMPTION

The Resident hereby expressly waives any and all right of redemption in case the Resident shall be dispossessed by judgment or warrant of any court or judge. The words "enter", "re-enter" and "re-entry" as used in this Agreement are not restricted to their technical legal meanings.

ARTICLE THIRTY SURRENDER OF POSSESSION

Upon the termination of this Agreement under the provisions of subdivisions A to F inclusive or J of Article 27, the Resident shall remain liable as provided in Article 28 of this Agreement. Upon the termination of this Agreement under any other of its provisions, the Resident shall be and remain liable to pay all Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses, Assessments and other charges due or accrued and to perform all covenants and agreements of the Resident up to the date of such termination. On or before any such termination the Resident shall vacate the Unit and surrender possession of the Unit with all additions and improvements to the Association or its assigns. Upon demand of the Association or its assigns, Resident shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Association or its assigns any instrument that may reasonably be required to evidence the surrendering of all estate and interest of the Resident in the Unit. Any personal property not removed by the Resident on or before such expiration or termination of this Agreement shall, at the option of the Association, be deemed abandoned and shall become property of the Association and may be disposed of by the Association without liability or accountability to the Resident. Any personal property not removed by the Resident at or prior to the termination of this Agreement may be removed by the Association to any place of storage and stored for the account of the Resident without the Association in any way being liable for trespass, conversion or negligence by reason of any acts of the Association or of the Association's agents, or of any carrier employed in transporting such property to the place of storage, or by reason of the negligence of any person in caring for such property while in storage. For purposes of this Agreement, the Resident's mobile home shall be deemed to be personal property and not realty after installation on the Member's lot. The Association releases and quitclaims to Resident any and all right, title and interest in and to the mobile home which may inure to the Property by operation of law.

ARTICLE THIRTY-ONE
CONTINUATION OF COOPERATIVE MANAGEMENT OF THE PROPERTY
AFTER ALL AGREEMENTS TERMINATED

No later than thirty (30) days after the termination of all Agreements, whether by expiration of their terms or otherwise, a special meeting of the Members shall take place to determine whether (a) to continue to operate the Cooperative; (b) to alter, demolish or rebuild the common facilities or any part of those facilities, or (c) to sell the Property and liquidate the assets of the Association. The Board shall carry out the determination made at the meeting of the Members, and all of the holders of the then membership certificates of the Association shall have such rights as inure to members of corporations having title to real estate. Each Member shall own his equity interest in the Association equal to his percentage of ownership of equity interest and percentage of sharing of common expenses as set out in the Bylaws and the Schedule of Maintenance Fees and Common Expense Assessments (Exhibit "C-1") of the Association.

ARTICLE THIRTY-TWO
UNSOLD MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES

The term "unsold membership certificates" means and has exclusive reference to the membership certificates of the Association that are unsold, which shall retain their character as such until such membership certificates become the property of a purchaser for bona fide occupancy (by himself or a member of his family) of the Unit to which such membership certificate is allocated.

ARTICLE THIRTY-THREE
FORECLOSURE - RECEIVER OF RENTS

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, if any action shall be instituted to foreclose any mortgage on the Property, the Resident shall, on demand, pay to the receiver of the rents appointed in such action Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments, if any, owing under this Agreement on the date of such appointment and shall pay to such receiver in advance, on the first day of each month during the pendency of such action, as rent under this Agreement, the Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments for the Unit as last determined and established by the Board prior to the commencement of the action, and such rent shall be paid during the period of such receivership, whether or not the Board shall have determined and established the Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments payable under this Agreement for any part of the period during which such receivership may continue. The provisions of this paragraph are intended for the benefit of present and future mortgagees of the land or the common facilities and may not be modified or annulled without the prior written consent of any such mortgage holder.

ARTICLE THIRTY-FOUR TO WHOM COVENANTS APPLY

The references in this agreement to the Association shall be deemed to include its successors and assigns, and the references to the Resident or to a Member of the Association shall be deemed to include the personal representatives, legatees, distributees and assigns of the Resident or of such Member; and the covenants shall apply to, bind and inure to the benefit of the Association and its successors and assigns, and the Resident and the personal representatives, legatees, distributees, successors and assigns of the Resident, except as otherwise stated in this Agreement.

ARTICLE THIRTY-FIVE ASSOCIATION'S ADDITIONAL REMEDIES

In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Resident of any provision of this Agreement, the Association shall have the right of injunction and the right to invoke any remedy at law or in equity, as if re-entry, summary proceedings and other remedies were not provided for in this Agreement. The election of one or more remedies shall not preclude the Association from any other remedy. All remedies of the Association are cumulative to each other and any other remedies given by law.

ARTICLE THIRTY-SIX LESSEE MORE THAN ONE PERSON

If more than one person is named as Resident under this agreement, the Association may require the signatures of all such persons in connection with any notice to be given or action to be taken by the Resident in connection to this Agreement, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the surrender or assignment of this Agreement, or any request for consent to assignment or subletting. Each person named as Resident shall be jointly and severally liable for all of the Resident's obligations. Any notice by the Association to any person named as Resident shall be sufficient, and shall have the same force and effect, as though given to all persons named as Resident.

ARTICLE THIRTY-SEVEN EFFECT OR PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If any clause or provision contained in this Agreement shall be adjudged invalid, the same shall not effect the validity of any other clause or provision of this agreement, or constitute any cause of action in favor of either party as against the other.

ARTICLE THIRTY-EIGHT
NOTICE TO ASSOCIATION OF DEFAULT

The Resident may not institute an action or proceeding against the Association or defend, or make a counterclaim in any action by the Association related to the Resident's failure to pay Maintenance Fees, Common Expenses or Assessments if such action, defense or counterclaim is based upon the Association's failure to comply with its obligations under this Agreement or any law, ordinance or governmental regulation unless such failure shall have continued for thirty (30) days after the Resident has given written notice of the default to the Association.

ARTICLE THIRTY-NINE
UNITY OF MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATE AND AGREEMENT

The membership certificate of the Association held by the Resident and allocated to the Unit has been acquired and is owned subject to the following conditions agreed upon with the Association and with each of the other Agreements for their mutual benefit:

A. The membership certificate represented by each certificate shall be cancelled and a new membership certificate issued only as an entirety and only in connection with a simultaneous transfer of this Agreement.

B. The membership certificate shall not be sold except to the Association or to an assignee of this Agreement after compliance with all of the provisions of Article 17 of this Agreement relating to assignments.

ARTICLE FORTY

The boundaries of each unit in the Cooperative shall be as follows:

A. Boundaries abutting streets on the Property shall be the inside curb line extended across all driveways.

B. Boundaries between Units on the side and to the rear shall be the boundaries currently maintained on the date of recording of this Agreement, or as set forth in the plot plan, if this Agreement has not been recorded.

C. Boundaries not covered under either A or B of this paragraph shall be the boundaries currently observed on the date of the recording of the Agreement.

D. Should any dispute arise over the location of any boundary of a Unit the Board shall determine such boundary by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board, which determination shall be final.

ARTICLE FORTY-ONE
